Dear Mr. Young:

This letter is in response to your request under the Access to Information Act. Your request reads:

(1) Please provide copies of documents, reports, and correspondence showing the reasons why Line 10 "Exportation" is always left blank and why the agency didn't provide information requested in the above ATI file showing the (a) total number of these long-guns and handguns that were returned to their country of origin; and, (b) the total number of these long-guns and handguns that are still in Canada.

Following your complaint to Information Commissioner of Canada and after our review of your request, a clerical error was identified in that the proper dates for part three (3) of your request were input incorrectly. This is by no means an excuse, but rather an explanation as to why you were not provided with all of the information requested.

A new search for the requested records has identified additional records. Attached please find the supplementary records which are being provided to you in their entirety.

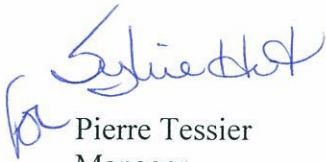

As the Canada Border Services Agency is committed to providing the highest level of client service, we would be pleased to assist you with any questions or concerns you may have regarding the handling of your request. You may contact Catheren Fachnie at 613-948-1916 or by e-mail at Catheren.Fachnie@cbsa-asfc.gc.ca, using our file number as a reference.

Should you be dissatisfied with the processing of this request, you may file a complaint within sixty days of receipt of this notice to the Information Commissioner of Canada by writing to:
