Dear Ms. Legault:

Re: COMPLAINT - RCMP ATILE: A-2013-04641

Please find attached a copy of my original request to the RCMP dated July 24, 2013 with my amendment to the section "Federal Government Institution" and a copy of the RCMP's response dated November 4, 2013 that I received on November 15, 2013.

The RCMP's no records response makes no sense. Prior to the destruction of the long-gun registry as a result of an Act of Parliament, the RCMP kept track of each long-gun sold/transferred and the names and addresses of each and every new owner. The same as they currently do with restricted and prohibited firearms today:
<http://www.rcmp-grc.gc.ca/cfp-pcaf/facts-faits/index-eng.htm#b>

All I was asking for were copies of records showing how these private and personal records of these firearms transfers were destroyed in accordance with the wishes of Parliament. The RCMP would have to keep these records in order to be able to prove they did indeed destroy all long-gun registry records in the event that RCMP Commissioner was called before Parliament to testify and provide evidence of the complete destruction of all long-gun registry records and all connection to the owners of these firearms.

Since filing this ATI Act request we now have evidence from High River, Alberta that the RCMP were in fact using long-gun registry records to complete their searches and seizures of firearms during the June flood. Consequently, it is even more important now that the RCMP produce records proving that they did indeed destroy all the long-gun registry records and all copies of those records in their possession.

Yours sincerely,
