

BANNED FIREARMS Previously Restricted Firearms to be Prohibited

The following are all previously restricted weapons that, under the new policy, will now be prohibited. People who are the registered owners of these firearms as of January 1, 1995, will be permitted to keep them for life, but may not transfer or sell them to another person.

| Rifles and Carbines | Numbers on Register |
|--|---------------------|
| 1. AK-47 and variants | 4,091 |
| 2. Armalite AR-180 | 199 |
| 3. Auto-Ordinance M27A1/M1927A-3 | 975 |
| 4. Beretta AR-70 | 15 |
| 5. Bushmaster Assault Rifle | 23 |
| 6. Cetme Sporter | 1 |
| 7. Comando Arms Carbine | 71 |
| 8. Daewoo K-1, K-2, MAX-1, MAX-2, AR-100, AR-110C | 318 |
| 9. Demro Tac-1M Carbine | 23 |
| 10. Eagle "Apache" Carbine | 11 |
| 11. FN-FAL and variants | 6,000 |
| 12. FNC-11, 22, 33 | 571 |
| 13. Galil | 0 |
| 14. Goncz High-Tech Carbine - Now called Claridge High-Tech | 806 |
| 15. Heckler and Koch HK-91 | 1 |
| 16. J&R Eng M-68/PJK-M-LF | 8 |
| 17. Leader Mark 5 Auto Rifle | 16 |
| 18. SIG AMT, PE-57 | 31 |
| 19. SIG SG-550/SG-551 | 4 |
| 20. Springfield Armoury - BM59 | 8 |
| 21. Springfield SAR 48 | |

NOTE:

The Colt AR-15 and the Ruger Mini-14 will be prohibited following the passage of legislation to permit this. Once again, present owners will be permitted to keep them for life.

FIREARM - PROHIBITIONS

| | APPROX. NUMBERS AFFECTED |
|--|------------------------------|
| 1. Handguns (by statute) to be grandfathered - .25 calibre - .32 calibre, and - all calibres of 105 mm and under in barrel length | 40,800 174,800 339,600 |
| TOTAL | 555,200 |
| 2. Handguns (by Order in Council effective Jan 1/95) - 9 makes of assault pistols | 38 |
| 3. Paramilitary/Military a) by Order in Council firearms already restricted moving up to prohibited effective January 1, 1995 - 21 types affected (hundreds of variants) | 13,172 |
| b) by Order in Council, new models of combat shotguns and assault rifles & carbines effective Jan. 1/95 | 50 |

Two pages from Justice Minister's Allan Rock's
"The Government Action Plan on Firearms Control"
tabled in Parliament on November 30, 1994.